

I oppose the proposed change that would permit greater media consolidation than present rules now allow.